

DERRICK HARVIN

FROM HERE

With his debut solo project, From Here, Derrick Harvin shares a musical masterpiece that transcends him from a musician to an artist.

Harvin has always found his life's passion in musical expression, though most of his successes have been achieved behind the scenes. A renowned producer, Harvin has written, produced, and engineered contemporary projects for Grammy Award winning artist including 50 Cent, Hilary Duff, Chaka Khan, Natasha Bedingfield, Betty White, and Kevin Cossom. This time spent making music in the background inspired Harvin to take the brave step into the spotlight. Much of this inspiration came from Harvin's work as producer on Erly Thornton's In Transit, the title track of which debuted at #25 on Billboard's Smooth Jazz Chart. On Thornton's In Transit, Harvin co-wrote and produced two selections with contemporary jazz guitarist Steve Oliver. In 2013, Harvin also provided keyboards and solo piano work on Phillip "Doc" Martin's Good Day At Work. Harvin's love of jazz's ability to convey emotion manifests itself within the photographic elements of From Here. As a musician doubling as a professional photographer, Harvin has mastered the art of expressing visual aesthetic and color through the beauty of instrumentation.

From Here is not just a product of Harvin's choice to progress in his music career; it is Harvin's courageous effort to embrace a brighter tomorrow after the heartbreak of his past. Dedicating the album to his late father, Harvin chooses to view the world from where he is at the moment with eyes wide open and a heart full of faith. He hopes that the story within From Here represents the universality within his audience, as everyone has the choice to decide how they will perceive and appreciate the future from here. Harvin is ready to captivate a global audience, one that can begin to understand life's great mysteries hand in hand through a magnetic album that surveys the depth of an artist's sentimentality.

Harvin's thoughtful reflection within From Here is not merely meant to show the world what he has to offer, but to reflect what the world has shown him.
